The Story of LOVELY LOTUS

LOVELY LOTUS Sterling table silver, by the Silversmiths of Watson Park, interprets in modern lines the age old appeal of the Lotus flower. Taking its inspiration from the "Indian" or sacred Lotus, (Nelumbium speciosum) the beautiful large water lily as represented in ancient Egyptian and Hindu Art, this lovely pattern has been created for those who desire a design of simple dignity and modern conception with a heritage that has endured through the centuries. The repetition of its unique conventionalized motif in a complete table setting displays the pattern at its best. The surfaces and facets of the design are not flat, but like the delicately chiseled detail, are fashioned as an ancient craftsman would have done it.

Great care has been exercised in the practical detail of LOVELY LOTUS—self-polishing forks—usable comfortable spoons of perfect balance—solidly joined knives in the most modern form—all these essential qualities of fine Sterling Silver tableware were emphatically part of the creative thought that controlled the group of artisans who have made this lovely pattern, called the season's smartest by critics and editors of fashionable magazines.

For formal or informal entertaining, you may choose from an extraordinary variety of matching pieces ranging from complete luncheon, tea and dinner services to delightful footed bowls, candlesticks and special occasional pieces. LOVELY LOTUS Sterling will bring to the 1937 bride extreme gratification in its unusual beauty, and supreme social confidence in its authoritative correctness and enduring quality.
